

Requirements for the Global Affairs Major (12 courses and language proficiency)

Economics Courses

- 1 Introduction to Microeconomics (ECON 108, 110, or 115)
- 2 Introduction to Macroeconomics (ECON 111 or 116)

Core Courses

- 3 Approaches to International Development (GLBL 225)
- 4 Approaches to International Security (GLBL 275)

Quantitative Analysis

- 5 Applied Quantative Analysis (GLBL 121)

International Development Track

- 6 Intermediate Microeconomics (ECON 121 or 125)
- 7 Elective 1
- 8 Elective 2
- 9 Elective 3
- 10 Elective 4

or

International Security Track

- Elective 1 (Class of 2016 & 2017)*
- Elective 2
- Elective 3
- Elective 4
- Elective 5

Research Design

- 11 One course of qualitative or quantitative research methods

Capstone

- 12 One-semester Task Force (GLBL 499)

Non-Credit

Demonstrated L5 proficiency in one language other than English

*For class of 2018 and subsequent, this course should be a game theory course, such as GLBL 180, as designated on list of approved courses. This is strongly recommended for the class of 2018 and required for subsequent classes.